

THE KC ROYALS

Famous Quotes

There was no quit in the crowd. There was no quit in the team.
- Eric Hosmer

I could have played another year, but I would have been playing for the money and baseball deserves better than that.

- George Brett

2/3 of the world is covered water the other 1/3 is covered by Lorenzo Cain

- Anonymous

Do You Know Who the Kansas City Royals Are?

If not I'll tell you ,the Kansas City Royals, are a Major League Baseball (MLB) team who are in the American League Central Division . They were founded in 1969, they're owner is David D. Glass ,and their spectacular manager is Ned Yost.

How they got to Kansas City

The KC Royals weren't always in Kansas City. First, KC had the Kansas City Monarchs, a Negro League team for all blacks. Later in 1955 the MLB accepted the Athletics, to move to Kansas City from Philadelphia. Then in 1968 the Athletics moved to Oakland. So, in 1969 MLB gave the Kansas City fan foundation the KC Royals. If you're wondering why the Royals I'll tell you!

The Name Royals

Mr. Ewing Kauffman won a raffle which he named after American Royal, a Show Horse Competition, Rodeo, and Barbecue since 1899.(Fun fact, the Royals stadium is named after him, Kauffman Stadium), Mr. Kauffman is the Royals Founder. So when you turn on the TV and the Kansas City Royals are on think about watching them for half an hour.

George Brett

George Brett is probably the most known player in Kansas City Royals history he was born on May 15, 1953 in West Virginia. He hit 317 home runs, 1595 RBI (runs batted in), 3514 hits through a treacherous 2707 games played ,and 21 years at third base and designated hitter.