Log in:

1. Have students log in with the ID you created for them

Create a New Book:

1. Press on + New Book on the My Books shelf
2. Press Blank Book to create a new book or press another title to create a "CUEPRINT" book that allows a more structured fill-in-the-blanks book

Writing and Illustrating the Book:

1. Use the marker drawer to draw with different pens, markers, and stamps
2. To get more drawing tools, open the MARKER WALL and drag makers to your drawer
  - a. Make sure you close the MARKER WALL box by tapping outside of the box so you can go back to your illustrations

Sharing Book:

1. Press the SHARE Button on the top right of the screen
2. Guide your student to mark the two boxes on the Sharing Policy page
3. Tap CONTINUE TO SHARE
4. Choose PUBLISH IN GALLERY or have them E-MAIL A LINK to you

Group Shelf:

1. The group shelf is new and Scribble Press is still working on this option
2. To publish to your group shelf choose E-MAIL A LINK, it will auto-publish to the group shelf
3. Students can see the group shelf by visiting scribblepress.com on a browser (iPad, computer, etc), log in and visit the TEACHERS tab.

Viewing and Downloading the Book:

1. From the SHARE menu, you can choose OPEN IN iBOOKS
2. From the email sent to you, click on the link it sends, for example:
<http://ebooks.scribblepress.com/book.php?g=B3YUHCCR>
3. From the link, you can choose to order a copy, read in the browser, download as an ePub (this will go to your iBooks shelf with a nice page turn effect) or download it as a PDF (great for your own printing purposes)
4. If you are interested in using Scribble Press to print books, they do give educational bulk discounts. Email educators@scribblepress.com for inquires
